Riverarch Equity Partners Portfolio Company Barr GeoSpatial Acquires Forsite Consultants and Northwest Management

Riverarch Equity Partners (“Riverarch”), together with its portfolio company Barr GeoSpatial Solutions (“BGS”), is pleased to announce the acquisitions of Forsite Consultants (“Forsite”) and Northwest Management, Inc. (“NMI”).

Forsite and NMI are the leading providers of geospatial forestry solutions in North America including digital tree inventories, forest land management, fire modeling, and vegetation management for utilities.

BGS is a leading provider of analytics and remote sensing to help manage and protect natural resources and critical infrastructure across North America. BGS leverages state-of-the-art aerial LiDAR, high resolution imaging, advanced data processing, and AI technologies to deliver invaluable data through sophisticated analytics and visualization. Being part of BGS will provide Forsite and NMI the resources and market access to expand their technology product offerings across North America and around the world.
